Heartland

By Jonathan M. Metzl

Malcolm X began by adoring whiteness, grew to hate white people and, ultimately, despised the false concept of white superiority <sup>2</sup> a killer of people of color. And not only them: low- and middle- L Q F R P H Z K L W H S H R S O H W R R D V 0 H W ] O ¶ V W L F look at Trump -era policies that have unraveled the Affordable Care Act and contributed to rising gun suicide rates and lowered life expectancies.

Crime and Punishment in Black America

By James Forman Jr.

Just as Metzl explains how seemingly pro-white policies are killing whites, Forman explains how blacks themselves abetted the mass incarceration of other blacks, beginning in the 1970s. Amid rising crime rates, black mayors, judges, prosecutors and police chiefs embraced tough-on-crime policies that they promoted as pro-black with
