1. President's Remarks and Updates - President Carolyn Lepre
 - o Dr. Lepre appreciates the feedback and support from this group and willingness to meet more often.
 - o The Provost Search Committee met for the first time on Monday, December 12 and are currently working on finalizing the search profile. Please encourage those in your departments to voice their opinions. Information about the search and any feedback can be sent to the email address found on the following webpage:

- o An implementation work group was created and tasked the University to take action on 18 recommendations. The work group was formed in January 2024 and is currently in its final stages of implementation.

- o The Office of Diversity and Inclusion is in the process of recruiting a Diversity Recruitment and Retention Coordinator. This position will focus on providing insight to marketing and programming ~~focus~~ the recruitment and retention of undergraduate students from diverse backgrounds
- o Residence Life is tentatively exploring a special interest housing community, IDEAA (Inclusion, Discovery, Equity, Allyship and Advocacy) would be for those students interested in learning from and engaging in programs and dialogue focused on complex issues centered in equity, justice and inclusion. Students would have the opportunity to explore various aspects of their own identities and interface with faculty, staff and other students from various other backgrounds through programs, speakers and events. do910 (di)1
